

DELEGATES TO COMMONWEALTH LEAGUE CONFERENCE

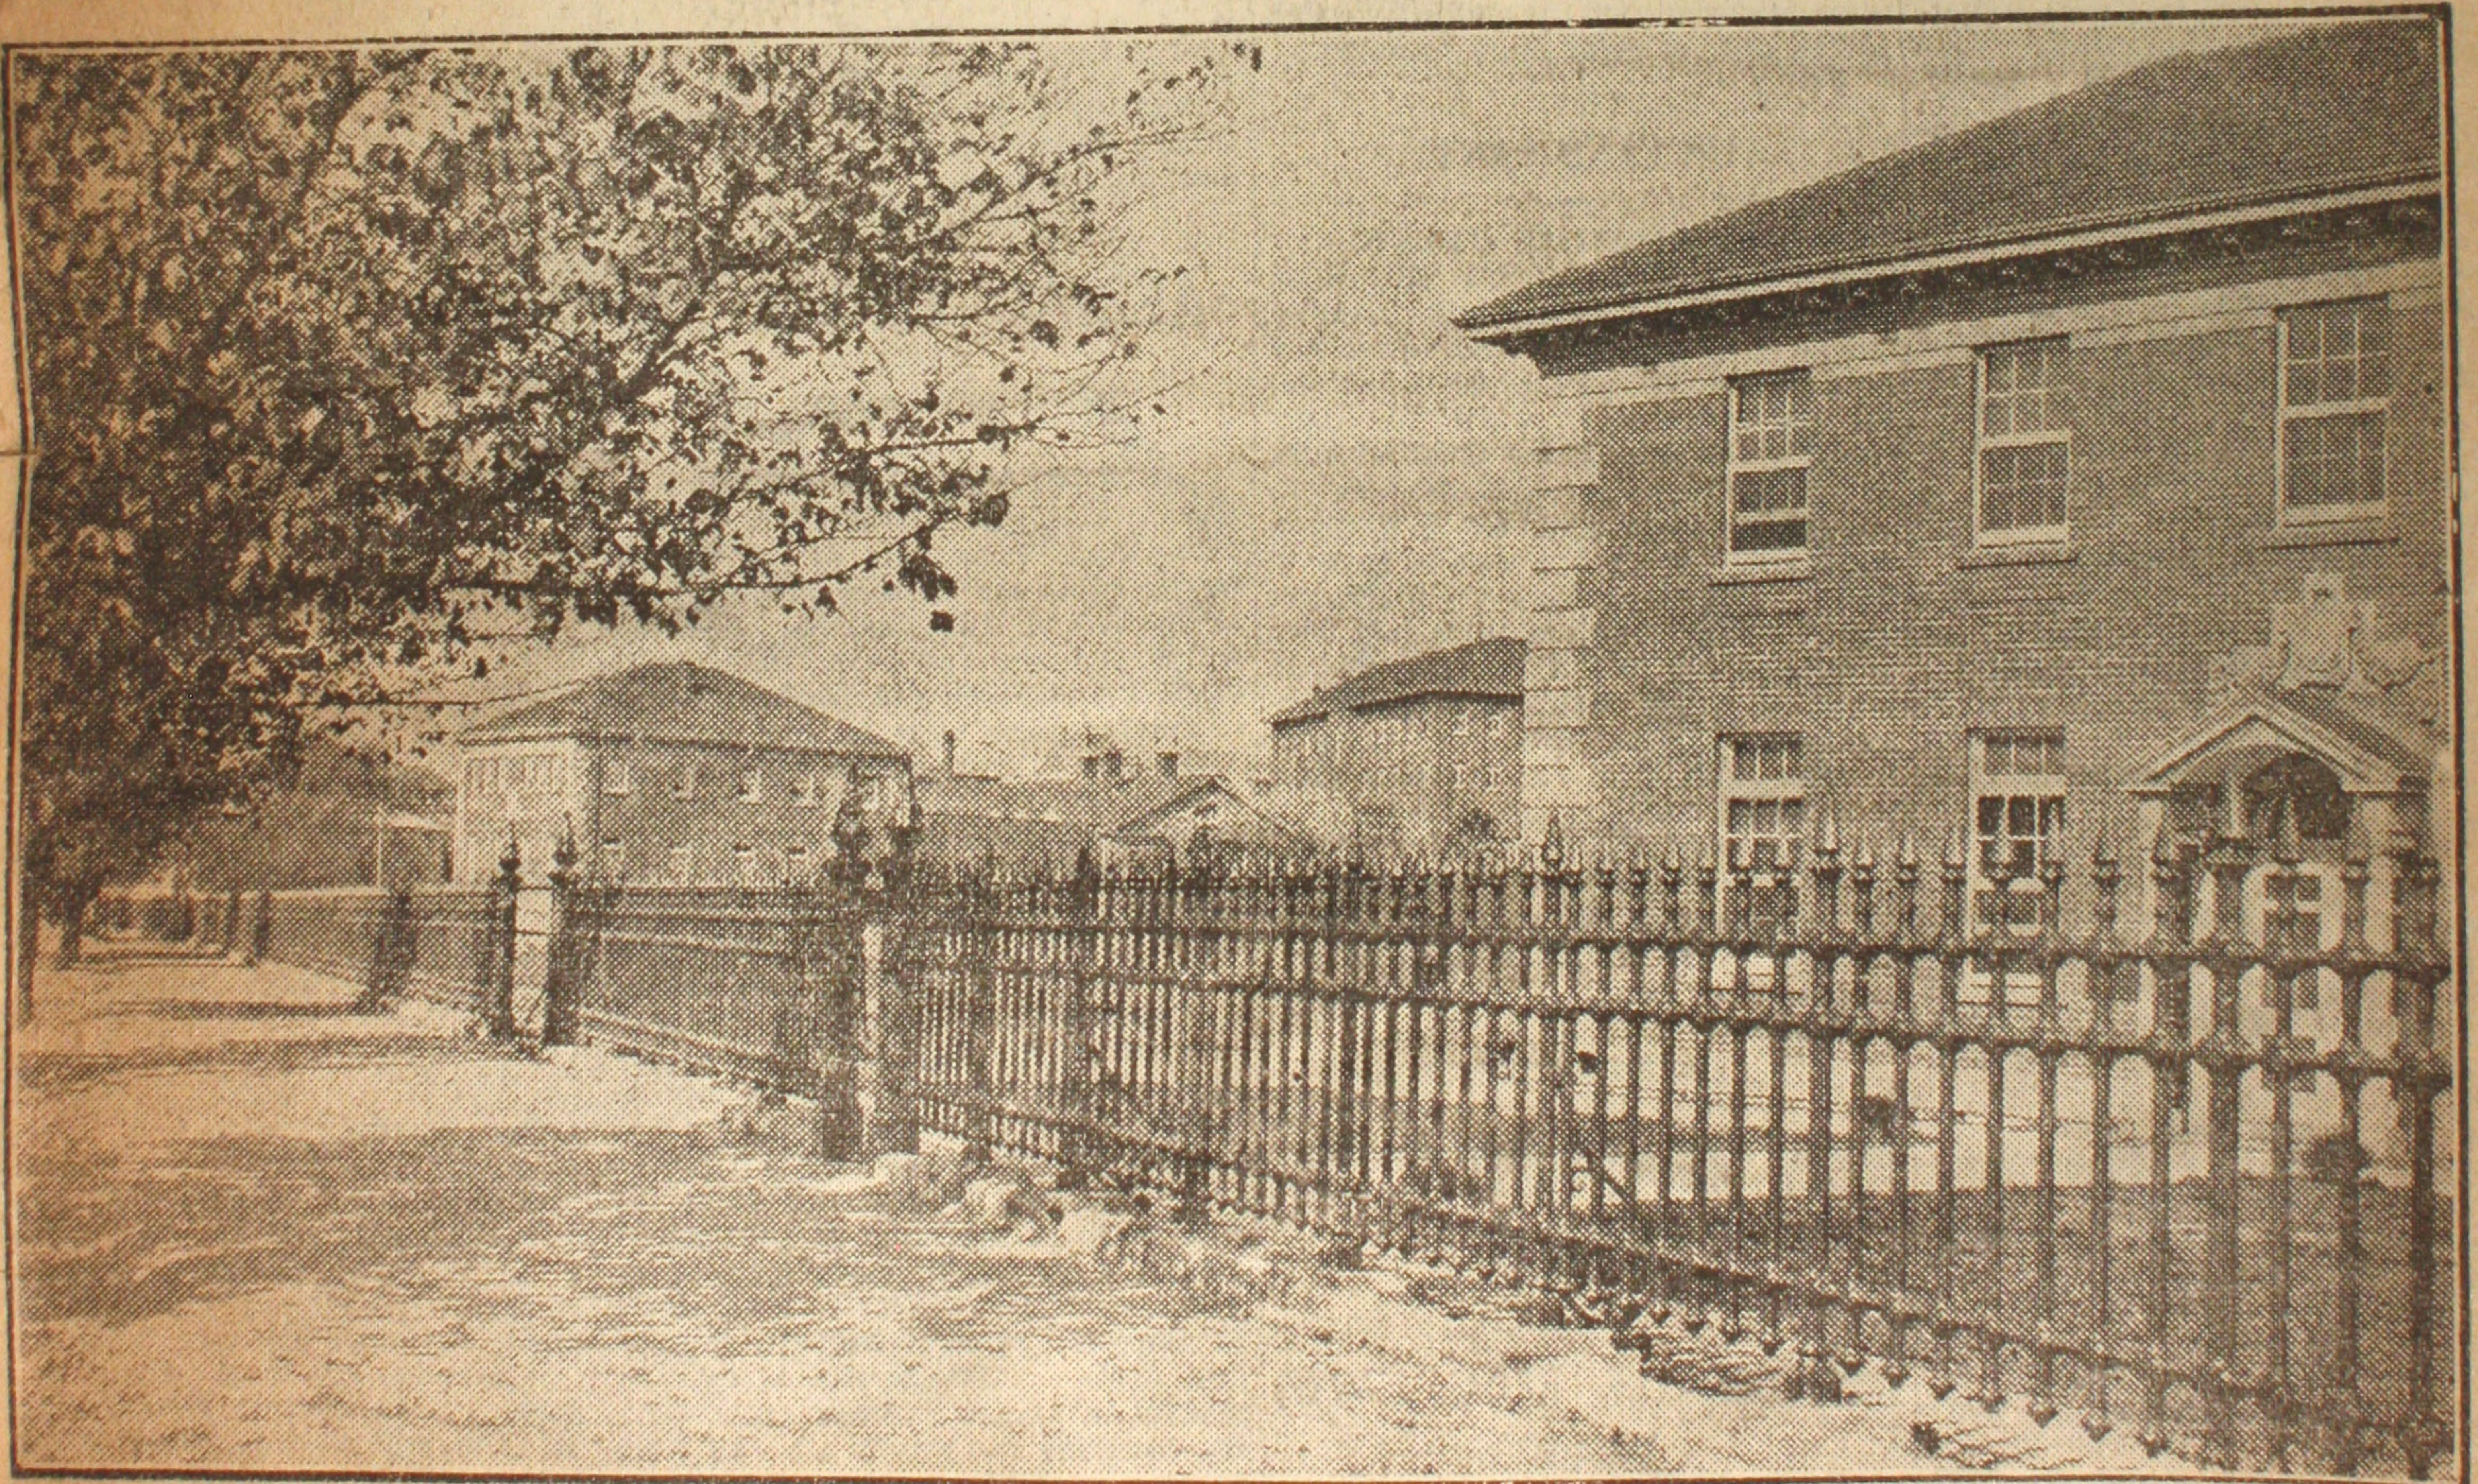

Misses Amy Burgess (left) and Winifred Berry, who have been appointed South Australian members of the delegation to be sent to the British Commonwealth League Conference by the Australian Federation of Women Voters. The conference will be held in London in June. Both the South Australian representatives are now in England. Miss Burgess is one of the principals of the South Australian Montessori Kindergarten Training College. Miss Berry was at one time a member of the staff of St. Peter's Collegiate School for Girls, and is the founder and organiser of the training centre for private school teachers.

RESEARCH WORK AT WAITE AGRICULTURAL INSTITUTE.—Dr. J. Davidson (entomologist), studying the tomato thrip which carries wilt disease. A study is made of the thrip in South Australia owing to the economic importance of this group of insects.
