

ADMISSIONS TO THE BAR.

SUCCESSFUL YOUNG LAWYERS.

Seven applicants were admitted as practitioners of the Supreme Court by the Full Court on Saturday morning. Those in the photograph are:—Back row (left to right)—Messrs. J. E. Cornish, J. N. McEwin, and A. B. Johnston. Front row—Messrs. C. R. Colquhoun, P. B. Angas Parsons, and B. B. Harford. Mr. W. A. Thornton was not present when the group was taken. Krischock, photo.

REC.

31-1-29

REC. 8-6-29

POPULAR LUNCH-HOUR RECITALS: Mr. John Horner, F.R.C.O., L.R.A.M., teacher of organ and pianoforte, playing at the Elder Conservatorium. He is giving a series of lunch-hour organ recitals.

SCIENTISTS STUDY NATIVE LIFE: During the past few weeks a party of scientists from the Adelaide University investigated problems of aboriginal life at Koonibba, Eyre's Peninsula. Top.—The party (from left)—Professor C. S. Hicks, Dr. R. F. Matters, Mr. M. Mitchell. Below—"Humpies" in which the aborigines live.