NEW GOVERNOR HOLDS FIRST LEVEL.

USHERED IN BY WELCOME RAIN.

QUIET BUT IMPRESSIVE GATHERING.

REPRESENTATIVE GATHERING AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

Grey skies through which the sun peeped wanly, and a chill wind holding a threat of further rain ushered in Sir Alexander Hore-Ruthven's first levee in South Australia on Tuesday morning, but they were conditions which augured well for the State's prosperity, and those present felt that the occasion was being held in more than usually auspicious circumstances. In a procession through the viceregal parties, which was somewhat shortened by weather conditions, there was a most representative attendance of citizens, the naval and military uniforms and silk robes of University professors lending a dash of colour to the sombreness of the morning.

Long before the ceremony began, however, public interest was manifested by the gathering of a crowd outside the gates, who formed a lane through which notabilities of all forms of official public life filed into the grounds.

Before the imposing old mansion itself a guard of honour and band from the 48th Battalion stood at attention, in command of Capt. A. Pope, and Lieuts. H. F. Beany (carrying the King's colours) and W. E. Angus, the band being under W. O. H. Smith (drum-major).

At noon His Excellency, in scarlet uniform, preceded by his aides—Capt. Verney and Lieut. the Hon. Hugh Grosvenor—and accompanied by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Chief Justice (Sir George Murray), the Premier (Hon. R. L. Butler), the Acting District Naval Officer (Lieut.-Commander W. Hill, R.A.N.), and the Base Military Commandant (Brig.-Gen. O. F. Phillips), emerged from Government House and took the salute on the lawn as the guard sprang to the "Present" and the band broke into the National Anthem.

His Excellency then pinned upon the breasts of Professor R. W. Chapman and Mr. Legh Winer their Order of C.M.G., and the I.S.O. upon Mr. C. H. Dewhurst (Secretary to the Commissioner of Public Works). The Colonial Auxiliary Forces officers' decoration was conferred upon Lieut.-Col. T. R. Mellor, O.B.E., 13th Brigade, A.F.A., and long-service medals upon Capt. D. J. Cox, 23rd Light Horse Regiment, and Sgt. J. W. Birchmore, 13th Brigade, A.F.A.

The viceregal party then re-entered Government House, the procession, which had formed up on the drive, passing through the front entrance and on to the ballroom before His Excellency. In the forefront were the members and staff of both Houses of the State Legislature, and then came members of the City Council, with the Lord Mayor's orderly carrying the mace, members of the Unley City Council, the staff of educational institutions, colleges, and the University, military officers, civic dignitaries, representatives of local governing bodies, and officers of the civil service; police inspectors, led by Brig.-Gen. R. L. Leane (Police Commissioner), and members of the legal profession, and the public.

PRESENTATION OF ADDRESSES.

Following the levee a number of addresses of loyalty and affection to the Crown and of welcome to His Excellency the Governor and the Hon. Lady Hore-Ruthven were presented by the following organizations:—

The Baptist Union of South Australia (presented by the president, Mr. F. W. Dinms, and the secretary, Rev. A. C. Hill).

The Royal Society of St. George (presented by the president, Mr. F. H. Downer).

Presbyterian Church of South Australia (represented by the Moderator, Rev. A. C. Weber, and the clerk, Rev. W. Floyd Shannon).

South Australian Chamber of Manufacturers (presented by the chairman, Mr. F. N. Simpson, and the secretary, Mr. H. E. Winterbottom).

Methodist Church of South Australia (presented by the chairman, Rev. E. J. Piper).

Congregational Union of South Australia and Home Mission Department (presented by the chairman, Mr. L. S. Smith, and the secretary, Rev. E. J. Stacey).

The Adelaide Chamber of Commerce (presented by the president, Mr. Lavington Bonython, and the secretary, Mr. J. A. Riley).

The Church of England (presented by the Bishop, Right Rev. Dr. A. N. Thomas).

The English-Speaking Union (presented by the president, Mr. Justice Angus Parsons).

The Governor's Reply.

Replying, His Excellency said:—
"As His Majesty's representative, I thank you for your expressions of loyalty and devotion to the throne and person of His Majesty the King.

"It will be my pleasure to convey to His Majesty the warm and loyal welcome which I have received since my arrival in the State of South Australia.

"I thank you all for the generous and kind words with which you have welcomed my wife and myself, and I assure you that it will be our earnest endeavour to assist, to the best of our abilities, the religious, patriotic, and commercial advancement of this State during our time here.

"I cordially reciprocate the expression of your hope that my term of office may witness a steady and continuous development of those great forces which have as their aim the peace and prosperity of our great Empire."

PRIVATE ENTREE.

Those entitled to private entree to the levee, and who were present, included His Honor the Chief Justice and Lieutenant-Governor (Sir George Murray), the Premier (Hon. R. L.
