

News 29-8-35

Medical School's Jubilee Celebrations

THE ADELAIDE UNIVERSITY'S medical school jubilee celebrations will open tomorrow with a conversazione and exhibition. Here is Miss Eileen Sudholz arranging the display of enlarged head models of germ-carrying mosquitoes for the exhibition.

HOW ONE OF THE towers on Bonython Hall looks since the scaffolding has been removed. A photograph taken today.

News 21-8-35

Full Council for Scientific and Industrial Research

21 AUG. 1935

THE FIRST MEETING IN ADELAIDE of the full Council for Scientific and Industrial Research was held at the University today. Included in this group are Profs. Kerr Grant, Parnell, Woodruff, and Richardson, Dr. Bull, Sir George Jullius, Mr. Marston, Prof. Watt, Sir David Rivett, and Mr. Lightfoot.

Scientists In Conference:

Adv. 22-8-35

THE FULL COUNCIL for Scientific and Industrial Research is now meeting in Adelaide for the first time. Delegates are:—From left: Professor R. D. Watt, Mr. G. Lightfoot (secretary), Professor H. A. Woodruff, Dr. L. B. Bull, Sir George Jullius (chairman), Professor A. E. V. Richardson, Sir David Rivett (chief executive officer), Mr. H. R. Marston, Professor E. J. Goddard, Mr. P. E. Keam, Mr. W. Russell Grimwade, Professor Kerr Grant, and Professor T. Parnell.