My dear Ron,

Many thanks indeed for sending me a copy of your book and for the very kind dedication in it which I fear I have done little to deserve.

I am sure the book will set a lot of people thinking and do a great deal of good. It is grand to see it out. Apart from the few misprints you mention Oliver & Boyd have done their usual excellent job.

I shall be passing through Cambridge next Monday, the 27th, with Pauline. Will you be around? If so I should like to have a chat with you. If you are around and the times fit perhaps you would care to lunch with me; this time I must be the host.

Yours,

Professor Sir Ronald Fisher
