

21st. February 1949.

My dear Frank,

I had received Sade's offprint on enumeration without, I think, any covering letter, and certainly without my sending him any enthusiastic letter of congratulation. I have a mathematical Frenchman here who might be amused to look up M. Frolov, or rather, his work.

Yours sincerely,