

9th. December 1948.

Dear Baker,

I think if my remarks about Lysenko were to be [*] republished it would be proper to complete the quotations from Lysenko's address which form the basis of what I have to say. Some of these had been cut to save time in broadcasting. I will send a copy of what was originally submitted. The Listener had the broadcast version this morning, but I do not suppose they will have any objection to your society publishing the fuller version.

[CP 229] J.H.B.

Yours sincerely,

Please do not take any notice of red ink
markings which are not mine.