

9th March, 1957.

My dear Chester,

Thanks for your note. What you say about Harvard will, I expect, work very well.

I am sending a paper to Biometrics on "The Underworld of Probability", which may possibly amuse you.

Sincerely yours,

I am sending you some correspondence which I have very much to print.