My dear Fisher

I cannot remember if I sent your paper on determinin back to you or not. I have searched for it, however, in vain. I sent you a book by Comford to read, and you replied on Jan 16.

If I did send it back, my letter of Jan 14, or the initials, would say so. Please tell me if you find it and I will search again diligently. I am very unlikely to have lost it, but may have put it in a wrong place.

I have been muddling my head over free-will,
but cannot get any ideas clear. I think I shall give it up as hopeless. I cannot quite clearly see where we differ

Yours sincerely
