

7 January 1939.

Major I. Marlin, C.O.D.,
Cripps's Corner,
Forest Row,
Sussex.

Dear Major Marlin:

I have your card of 5 January. I have seen Ford once briefly during the autumn and asked how the books were getting on. I gathered he was pleased with his progress with at least two, but did not get down to any details.

Please do not trouble to read more of my paper, or more quickly, than you feel inclined to at the moment. There is no hurry, nor any importance in the thing.

Yours sincerely,