

From MAJOR L. DARWIN, Cripps's Corner, Forest Row, Sussex.

I always like reading anything of yours at any stage, but if you are going to burst out into metaphysics, my comments would be worth the ink shed on them!

L.D.

Dec. 8. 32

On consideration I see that the long period about which you could say nothing whatever is a difficulty. But people do not much notice simple omissions, and I should like to see an olive branch hanging at

L.D.

Dec-8 32,