FOREST ROW,

SUSSEX.

Dear Fisher.

I am sending my photo, to you to-day, and hope it will arrive safely. I think it is rather smaller than the ones you have; but that would not offend my eyes. Indeed it seems to me that one small frame between two bigger ones is most suitably typical of the situation!

I see that Mr. Trevor is now working at your lab. Please wish him from me every success in his very difficult investigation. I felt myself that I could come to no certain conclusion, the main difficulty being the ^{social} stigma so often attached to the products of Crosses between different nationalities.

From this point of view Dutch-Javanese marriages, and also perhaps
New Zealand - Maori marriages, would be worth special attention.
I can only hope that he sees his way more clearly than I have ever done!

Yours sincerely,

Demand Dawui

My photo was taken in 1931
— before my bearded days.
That seemed to me most suitable for your purposes.

If you think that a letter written direct to Mr.
Trevor would be more suitable, let me know, &
do not deliver the message.
I ^{should} have little to say but good wishes.
