Dear Fisher

I think I got a circular asking for suggested names for Council for next meetings.
I think new blood is a good thing, but I could think of no suitable person. Now it occurs to me that the Hill, whose review of your book you liked, might be the right sort. I know absolutely nothing about him, and this is only to file

Suggest the idea to you. Do not move unless you think it wise.

Yours truly

L. DeWitt
