CRIPPS'S CORNER,

FOREST ROW,

SUSSEX.

My dear Fisher.

I have looked at - the Enclosed again, and I really have no criticism to make on it - as a representation of my father's views. I guess he would have been a bit surprised that such a complicated explanation was needed.

I see you have been having a go at - Pearson. It seemed to me a wild deduction from such a basis. There must always, I take it, be some segregation in every species, and would not the result be a perpetual scattering or divergence from the mean? Would not women marriage do this? No answer, for I feel sure both an idea as Pearson with die a natural death.

Turtelin affinis still very troublesome.

Yours sincerely

L. Darwin
