

[April, 1930?]

JH

Dear Fisher.

Perhaps it would be best for us to say nothing about amendments to the outline. I shall say nothing, and you do as you think best. I don't much like your words or mine. If anything should or has to be done, please consider the following.
Words in [] are the new words.

... the benefit received per child [and the necessary premiums] should be.....

Yours

L Darwin