

I am afraid you are no-socialistic enough!

My dear Fisher.

I am certainly of opinion that you should have a shot at the enclosed. I see no argument against it. You must not mind failure. They are, I think, a cranky body, and one cannot guess what line they will take. Letting refer to me if you like, as I should be very glad to help. Poulton is slow-to move. How would it be to write to Goodrich tentatively, mentioning Poulton's name succinctly.
Poulton is, I think, good natural but slack and slow to write. — at least that is what I have found him. If you could see Doubtless, I should be inclined to go to him first for verbal advice. It is worth taking some trouble. I don't know what to say about the R.S. Testimonial.

It would hardly be answering exactly to what they want, other wise I should say it would be excellent. I am inclined to stick to what they say - "not more than three..." adding that a copy of the R.S. testimonial would be sent if of any use.
I wish I could be of more use.

Good luck

Yours sincerely

I have just got my Armchair Science, with my article in it.
They never sent me a proof, and I am much annoyed to see that they have cut out the note alluding to you and your book. — them.
I shall try to get it published in America.
