

26th. October, 1939.

Major L. Darwin, Sc.D.,
Cripps's Corner,
FOREST ROW,
Sussex.

Dear Major Darwin,

Many thanks for letting me see Poulton's letter. He really is a marvellous fund of butterfly knowledge, and always has something new and fascinating. I wish he published more outside purely entomological journals.

Yours sincerely,