

From MAJOR L. DARWIN, Cripps's Corner, Forest Row, Sussex.

My last card was, I guess, not very intelligible. Do not bother about it. If I do anything, I will send you the book, and a letter to make my question
clear -

L.D.

Aug. 13. 28

12 August 1902

It you can conveniently get hold of Huntingdon & Whitney's Builders of America, I hope you will do so. I want to write to you about it. It is to me very interesting, but in one place I think he has come a regular howler
and I want to know if you agree.
If I am right, I don't quite know what to do. I will write again.
Please don't trouble to write. But I hope you will, if you can, get his book from Engances^{Soc}. L.D. →

Or I could send the book.