

Aug 1928
CRIPPS'S CORNER,
FOREST ROW,
SUSSEX.

Dear Fisher

Thanks for ~~not~~ keeping me from making the howler.
I think my old brain gets a bit woolly at times. I think I won't make any comments on this part ^{to} him, as I should not ^{do} it effectively. When you have read the work carefully, possibly you would like to write something in our review under some general heading, being in both your criticisms, & a fair dose of butter, if you can, so as to undo James's work. I send you a ^{spare} copy of my letter to him, & your reply to me, as these may act as reminders — or my go into the waste paper basket.

Yours sincerely

L. Dacres

P.S. amaroctic (Hux) family idocy "appear to be a simple Mendelian recessive" Gale, Heredity & Eugenics, p 158