CRIPPS'S CORNER,

FOREST ROW,

SUSSEX.

Dear Fisher.

As I know some relations of Miss Greenleaves I made confidential enquiries. M^{rs} Greenleaves "needed her daughter.
She had a bad nervous breakdown and was obliged to take her away. She is better now, but they have settled at Altrincham to be near their relations".
It is fair to let you know that your suspicions in that direction were unfounded.

It fears the budget alters the figures in your memo

I don't know if we agree to do anything about it. I rather hate the kind of letter which says "we were glad to see that the government has at last followed our advice". We can have a wad or two on Wednesday

Yours sincerely

Lemuel Dawson

If you or Pether have any words of wisdom as to my attendance at or absence from the annual meeting, also let me know on Wednesday:

For my absence - easier to explain or cover up my postponement or reticence.

(2) MacBride announcing Mallett is what he might like, to show he does not object.

For my presence - ?
