My dear Fisher,

I arrived here last night from Cambridge to find the correspondence which you kindly sent me. I will keep it - together read it - carefully, and send it back to you in the course of a few days. I am sure it will interest me.

I also have your letter of the 22nd touching the dis:

- discuss as to reorganisation.

I agree with a very great deal you say, though on some points I should put less emphasis than you do.

What I wanted to make clear was that it was dismissal that we were considering and that it was better not to wrap it up in ambiguous words. I hope it will go right but like you I am not certain.

We have had a letter from Major Hills M.P. in which he says he proposes to have another shot at the Chancellor of the Exchequer upon family deductions. I do not know quite what to advise him. We might discuss this next Wednesday if you are coming to the meeting. If you think fit you might tell Mr. Hodson to send him a copy of your memorandum straight away. I am not quite sure if this is wise policy as it is rather stiff reading. If you do this please take precautions

that it is your corrected copy which is sent.

What do you think of asking Sir F. Willis to join our council? He has left the Board of Control at the age of 65. Consult Cullen
next time you see him.
No hurry.
