

From MAJOR L. DARWIN, Crippa's Corner, Forest Row, Sussex.

I am sorry I gave you all the trouble of writing on the editorial points. I seem to be extra ^{refuse} muddle headed lately. And don't even to review because we don't quite see eye to eye. You may be right, & anyhow we both, I am sure, object to a flat rate.

[3 June 1927]

L.D.