Dear Fisher,

Mrs. Hodson writes to ask whether it would be a good plan to put an advertisement of my forthcoming book on the back of the Christmas appeal which we are issuing. I hardly know what to say.

If it would make the appeal look merely as an advertisement of the book the result would certainly be bad.

If it was printed fairly small possibly this objection would not hold good. Then again I do not like to settle this myself because it would look as if I were taking advantage of the issue for my own private purposes.

I wonder whether you would feel disposed to ring up Mrs Hodson, and give a decision on the matter. Is it worth consulting MacBride? I think not. The matter is very pressing

Yours sincerely

L. Darwin
