Gunby Hall,
Burgh,
Lincolnshire.

Dear Fisher

Thanks for your letter, which I will consider and answer in the course of a few days, keeping Gini's letter in the mean time.

We are settling down here,
probably to live here permanently.
I forget if I told you of this upset to our lives. The more,
and going on with my book,

occasionally

has made me rather busy.

I wish we were not so far off London.

Yours sincerely

Leonard Dawson
