Dear Fisher.

You heard that Mr. Flesch resigned the Treasurership. I am thinking of approaching Dr. Douglas White and shall do so if I hear no objections. I shall assume you agree unless I hear to the contrary.

I quite agree with you about increasing our number, but I don't see how to do it.

A number of persons trying to push it might do something.

During the war Mr. Gotta & myself were very busy, and no one else took much interest in it. Mrs Green is not in touch with the kind of people likely to come in:

It wants, and we want a lot of work to make a Society like ours, and I don't see where that work is to come from.

But we ought to be able to keep the Review alive.

I see ways in which we might push the Sale a bit, but they all mean money or time. Don't answer

Yours sincerely

L Dawkins
