

16th April, 1958.

My dear Henry,

I had meant you to have and, so long as you wanted, to keep the draft that I had drawn up for the B.B.C. in order that it could be modified (shortened, lengthened, etc.) so as to fit in with the programme you have in view.

I had supposed, and rather hoped, that you were taking charge of this programme, but perhaps it is someone else.

Sincerely yours,
