My dear Ron,

How very good of you to let me have a draft of what you propose to say for the E.B.C. talk in July. I am not quite sure whether this is a copy which I may keep. If it is not, please send me a few lines and I will return it after careful study.

I have not been through it yet since it had to await my return to Oxford late last night. I will write again in more detail when I have done so.

With best wishes,

Ever yours,

Henry.
