

10th. December 1946.

My dear Henry,

We are having a little party in college, by way of breaking the ice after having no feasts for so long, on January 9th., evening dress and black ties. I should like it immensely if you could be my guest, and enclose a formal invitation card in the hope that you can manage it.

Yours sincerely,