

September 9, 1942

My dear Henry,

Thanks for your note of Tuesday, and excuse my not having written before.

It will really be delightful if you can come this week end, and of course the times you mention will be perfectly convenient for us. I rather hope that Nicolette may be back, but I have not yet heard for certain.

Yours sincerely,