

May 31, 1938

My dear Ford,

Many thanks for having sent to me your Home University book on the Study of Heredity. I am sure it deserves the greatest success, for it gives not only a clear account of the subject. but an original approach and much material which will be new to readers who know something about it.

Congratulations!

Yours sincerely,