

25th June, 1951.

Dear Salisbury,

I have now seen Yates, as I believe you have also, so I presume you have formed your own opinion as to the utility of a further grant towards Luckerman's statistical researches. In any case, I do not suppose you will want a further from me.

Yours sincerely,