

June 25, 1942

Dear Herdy,

Many thanks for sending me your inaugural address. I liked it immensely, though perhaps the part on evolution not so much as the others. What an excellent institution an inaugural address is!

Will you be setting out plankton nets this year as you hoped to last?

Yours sincerely,