

From

Dr. J. S. HUXLEY, 31, Pond Street, Hampstead, London, N.W.3

Dear Ronald

Nov 5 1955

Many congratulations on the  Coffey Medal! Now that you have "made quantitative" a vast field of biology. Couldn't you crown your career by helping with a non-quantitative mathematical description of other fields, especially 'fields' in the Gestalt sense?!

Sincerely
Julian Huxley