

Dear Punnett,

Many thanks for your letter and for the portrait, which is I think really a charming one. It is most kind of you to offer to pay for framing, as I had not thought of asking so much. I am trying to get someone in Cambridge to by-pass the regulations so far as to procure a frame new or old, which I hope may be possible. If you really wish it, I will let you know what the charges are.

When ready, I propose to hang it in the space facing the front door on the outer wall of the drawing-room. Many thanks again for meeting my request so quickly.

Yours sincerely,
