

3 March 1943

Dear Taylor,

Of course you and Pace must do what you like about the Rh paper. I think my last letter to you has crossed yours. We get offended at such meetings, as do all Societies, a good deal of pretentious nonsense of no importance, and I was looking for something in which the audience could take an intelligent interest.

In any case, only do what you feel like doing.

Yours sincerely,